

BETWEEN THE LINES

Tickets available at www.eventfinda.co.nz/search?q=Between+the+Lines

Youth Workshop - Waipawa Municipal Theatre- Thursday 23 July - in conjunction with local schools.

Chewing the Cud - Langton House - Thursday 23rd July, 7-9pm. $35-00

Join us for an interesting evening 'Chewing the Cud', a conversation with Steve Braunias and Bill Ralston.

Two of New Zealand's most well known names are opening the inaugural CHB Readers and Writers Festival with a fireside chat in the beautiful historic Langton House.

The Texture of Words [poetry] - Tattertales - Friday 24 July 10.30am-noon. $20-00

Gather in a rustic boutique of timber and textiles to hear readings from two of New Zealand's best known and talented poets, Tayi Tibble and Marty Smith. Chair: Morrin Rout

Bubbles and Books brought to you by Agri-lab. Nola Cafe - Friday 24 July 12.30-3pm. $50-00

Our special lunchtime guest and speaker Wendyl Nissen will captivate with stories of her life as a journalist, magazine editor and broadcaster.

A winter warming lunch will be served and will be accompanied by delicious bubbles from Hawkes Ridge Winery. Our thanks to Agri-lab for their sponsorship of this event.

Parallel Lives - Mountview, Waipawa -Friday 24th July 7 - 9pm. $30-00

A wonderful evening of conversation is guaranteed with guests Sir Bob Kerridge and Dr Matthew Hall, led by well known writer and editor Paul Little.

Crime – a night of mystery! Ashcott Homestead - Saturday 25 July 7-9pm. $30-00

The Between the Lines Festival organisers are thrilled to include much loved author Charity Norman to our line up. Charity has just published her sixth novel, The Secrets of Strangers.

Listen to the fascinating tales from this award winner author in the ballroom of the elegant Ashcott Homestead.

Spotlight on CHB - Waipawa Settlers Museum - Sunday 26th July 11am-1pm. $20-00

The final event of the Between the Lines Festivities - Showcasing CHB and celebrating our local authors.

Five local authors will speak about their work and inspiration at this brunch event being held in the wonderful Settlers Museum, Waipawa.

Tickets available at www.eventfinda.co.nz/search?q=Between+the+Lines

