

Change of Season Haiku

Shivering frosts, long Nights Spring comes warming the awaiting world

Lucy

Flowers are blooming
And the world is defrosting
Hibernation's over

Ottilie

Daffodils

Cancer awareness

Yellow petals, sweet nectar

Money, coins and dimes

Flowers

Bloomage and blossom

Symbolising the deceased

And starting new lives

Forests

Toadstools and blossoms

Fairies and Pixies gather

Hiding in the blooms

Emily

Winter

Winter is leaving
Frost blankets the grassy fields
Spring brings hope of sun.

Spring

Spring brings her children
Blooming flowers follow fast
Winter is leaving

Rebecca

Spring haiku

Lambs jumping happily
Plants are slowly blossoming
Spring is on the way

Jack

Blossom trees blooming
Lambs bounce joyfully around
Frosty bitter air

Addie

Daffodils

Lonely daffodils
Huddled together at night
While the stars twinkle

The new season

Blossoming season
New flowers grow bright
The plants are healthy tonight

The cold

The frost has begun
The grass is frozen in cold
Until the sun shines

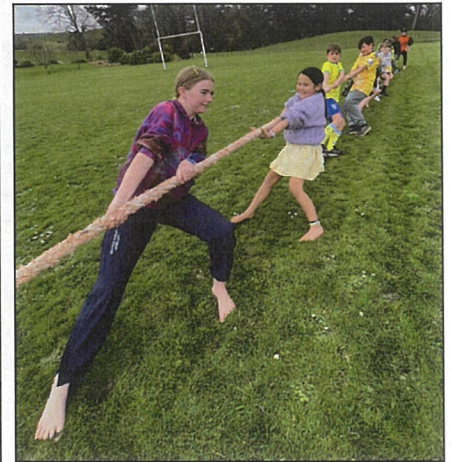

Kiara

It was heartwarming to see so many Fun Hats and so much cheerful 'yellow' today. Thank you for your donations to the Cancer Society. $100 will be sent their way.

The Value of Reading

Children who have access to books at home do better in school. Having books in the home is more important than parents' education levels as a marker for success in school.

Independent choice is key to keeping children engaged in reading. Children are more likely to read and finish books if they pick the books themselves.

The simple pleasure of reading can have a powerful impact on the mental, social and emotional health of children.
